

It is very important to let satellite radio stations such as XM continue to operate broadcasting traffic and weather. This is competition at its finest. Let the local radio stations step up to the plate and compete, not lobby.
Thanks